

How to participate in the State Board's process for adopting cut scores

On Aug. 24, the State Board of Education & Early Development will consider sending out for public comment the department's recommended cut scores for the Alaska Measures of Progress. Students score on a scale that is divided into four achievement levels, 1 to 4, from low to high. Cut scores are the minimum scores for levels 2, 3 and 4.

The packet for the Aug. 24 meeting will be available online on Aug. 19 at https://education.alaska.gov/State\_Board/.

You may comment orally at the Aug. 24 meeting at noon by calling 1-844-586-9085 if you are outside of Juneau or 586-9085 in Juneau.

After the proposed scores have been sent out for public comment, you may submit written comments at <https://education.alaska.gov/regs/comment.cfm> by 4:30 p.m. Sept. 24.

The State Board is expected to consider adopting the recommended cut scores at its meeting on Oct. 9.

The packet for the meeting will be available online the week of Oct. 5 at https://education.alaska.gov/State\_Board/.

You may comment orally at the Oct. 9 meeting at noon by calling 1-844-586-9085 if you are outside of Juneau or 586-9085 in Juneau.

Additionally, the two State Board meetings mentioned above will be streamed in audio through the Legislative Information Office over <http://www.alaskalegislature.tv/> beginning at noon each day.
